HISTORY OF ST. ANTHONY'S PARISH

0

With the dedication of the new church the people of St. Anthony's Parish have seen fulfilled a hope born shortly after the Rev. Lino Buggini, a Scalabrinian, was assigned to administer to the spiritual needs of the increasing Italian population of Everett. It was early in 1928 that Fr. Buggini purchased the old Brockway Theatre, converted it into a church, and in April of the same year offered the first Mass in the history of St. Anthony's Parish.

Fr. Buggini's work was not easy. The older parishioners can never forget with what vigor and patience their first pastor labored among the Italians of Everett. During normal times his work would have been difficult enough, but it became even more so when soon after the organization of the parish came the cold, bitter poverty of the depression. The parish should have died in its infancy. That it did not was due to the indefatigable zeal of Fr. Buggini and his trust in Divine Providence.

Thus, in 1933, when the Rev. John Peona, P.S.S.C. (Pious Society of St. Charles Borromeo), succeeded Fr. Buggini as pastor, he found a parish ready and anxious for greater spiritual and material progress. Fr. Peona was eminently prepared to meet this challenge. A versatile man with great capacity for leadership, Fr. Peona soon gained the respect and admiration not only of his parishioners but also of all the other citizens in the community.

The next eleven years saw the parish of St. Anthony grow into a dynamic unit of the archdiocese of Boston. To meet the growing attendance at church, Sunday Masses were increased from three to six. The many societies of the church started under the pastorate of Fr. Buggini plunged courageously and untiringly ahead to meet

It was not long before the people of St. Anthony's realized that in Fr. Martellozzo they had the pioneering spirit of Fr. Buggini, the leadership and drive of Fr. Peona, the sincerity and cheerfulness of Fr. Natale, and the devotion for souls common to every lover of Christ.

Quickly, Fr. Martellozzo took up the loose ends of the parish affairs, and tactfully, wisely, and unhesitatingly bound them to himself as he prepared to further the spiritual and physical growth of the parish. The Sunday School Teachers were reorganized into the Confraternity of the Christian Doctrine, and the spiritual instruction of the children placed under more methodical supervision. He urged a greater and more influential Holy Name Society to help combat the encroachment of modern materialism. He endorsed the Bonaventure Society to promote wholesome social relations among the young men and women, and greatly expanded the C.Y.O. activities to present positive action against juvenile delinquency. To provide more facilities for the increased activities of the parish, he purchased on December 15, 1947, the Knights of Columbus building adjacent to the church. Morning and evening religious services were increased to meet the spiritual needs of the growing number of parishioners.

And yet, at no time, did Father Martellozzo forget one of the primary objectives of the parish, the building of a new church—and this he repeatedly emphasized—the building of a school and a convent. With great harmony and enthusiasm Father Martellozzo and his two popular and respected curates, Rev. Francesco Minchiatti, P.S.S.C., and Rev. Mario Boeri, P.S.S.C., and the people of the parish worked untiringly to raise the necessary funds. Banquets, movies, dances, bazaars, penny sales, and card parties were run to make possible the building program. On February 10, 1947, a large parcel of land was purchased on Oakes Street next to the rectory.

On April 14, 1950, the land on Oakes Street was broken to begin the building of the new church. Hundreds watched the colorful ceremony. Many had tears in their eyes, and all had gladness in their hearts. On July 4, 1951, the cornerstone was laid by His Excellency, Richard J. Cushing, Archbishop of Boston. On Sunday, September 9, 1951, the parishioners of St. Anthony's, with their pastor and curates, walked humbly and proudly in procession from the old church to the new church, and in a solemn, jubilant ceremony dedicated the new house of worship to God.

In a world of brutal conflicts, destruction, and rampant materialism, this dedication of a new Temple of God again emphasizes the mission of Christ on earth — to bring all men to the love of God. This new church, a prayer in stone, is the answer of the Italians of Everett to those who seek the destruction of religion.

Best Wishes . . .

Words of Thanks

I wish to express my deepest gratitude to every member of the Dedication Banquet Committee, to all parishioners and friends and the firms who have made this event the greatest ever in the history of St. Anthony's Church.

Your Pastor.
